

22 Bhutan Street Aubin Grove WA

4  2  2

Welcome to 22 Bhutan Street, an easy walk to the local primary school, it is nestled quietly between the southbound farmer's markets of Wandi and the more bustling northern shopping districts of Cockburn Central. Drawing on solar power, this energy efficient, four bedroom, two bathroom family home has an uplifting, crisp white and wood palette with options for work and relaxation within.

Key features include an east facing Grand Master Bedroom where you can choose to wake up to gentle morning light streaming in from the side windows to the recessed bed nook or sleep in with window treatments shut.

Take advantage of homework or work from the front area of the home, in the quieter space where you'll find a study.
